Although [redacted] application was given careful consideration, I regret to say that we did not have a suitable vacancy for him, and he was advised of this by our Personnel Office on 9 October 1953. A review of his file indicates that [redacted] has at least one relative still residing in [redacted] As a matter of policy, we avoid hiring persons who have such relationships, and we depart from this policy only in the rarest circumstances. Beyond this, for reasons of economy, we are doing comparatively little hiring in the professional categories.

which prompt this decision.
